Mennonite Yearbook for 1957

It is the purpose of the Mennonite Yearbook to print statistical data and information for all activities of the Mennonite Church throughout the world. These activities consist of congregations, organizations, missions, conferences, and so on. The Yearbook records yearly changes having to do with organizational personnel, statistical data, congregational membership and pastoral changes, and Ministerial Directory changes of names and addresses among ordained personnel.

Each year the task of gathering the data for both old and new activities becomes greater. However, most of the material comes from the officers of organizations and conferences. The Yearbook attempts to list new organized effort in the church as soon as sufficient information becomes available to provide an adequate listing.

We wish to call your attention to changes in this year's issue which we believe will increase the usefulness of the Yearbook and save time for our readers.

1. The Ministerial Directory has been rearranged alphabetically. It is no longer classified by states and countries. With the increase of pastoral changes it was becoming more difficult to avoid duplication or omission of names. In the alphabetical arrangement the name will stand in the same alphabetical position constantly.

2. The tabular form in the conference tables has been condensed and rearranged to save space and to make the information more easily read. The bishop districts are set off by lines with the bishop listed with the home congregation at the head of the district.

3. This year for the first time Paul Erb as Executive Secretary of Mennonite General Conference has prepared a summary article reviewing activities of the church for 1956. This article replaces the articles prepared by separate organizations. The idea of one article prepared in this manner was reviewed before General Council and was looked upon with favor.

4. Mennonite broadcasts have been compiled by Henry Weaver, Jr., and a listing appears for the first time in this year's issue.

One item which is particularly noticeable this year is the small increase of 280 in total church membership over last year. Not since the period 1942-45 has there been such a low increase. Since 1946 up until last year the annual increase varied between about 900 and 2,400. Perhaps our local congregations exercise greater care in the keeping of church rolls. It may be also that this figure reflects our actual membership growth. However, one should not attempt to determine the reason for this condition until more information is available.

Again this year the same care and thoroughness were exercised to bring all information up to date. We are especially grateful to the officers of all organizations within the church for supplying the information for publication.

We are grateful especially to Helen Trumbo for her efforts in compiling and preparing the statistical material for printing. We are grateful also to the printers for their careful handling of the material in composition, proofreading, make-up and printing.

As we peruse the pages of the Yearbook we see a statistical picture of the church in action—in service for Christ in many fields of endeavor. We see a constant broadening of these fields and a strengthening of organized effort. In all these activities may we seek to glorify God and to make the name of Christ known, and in so doing strengthen our own understanding and fellowship with Christ and with one another.

The Mennonite Church in 1957

By Paul Erb

Executive Secretary of Mennonite General Conference

There are a number of Mennonite denominational groups. The Mennonite Yearbook gives data, chiefly concerning the organization and personnel of the largest of these groups (81,472 members), known officially as the Mennonite Church. This article attempts to give an over-all picture of the work of this Church in 1956.

The chart on p. 6 attempts to diagram the organizational pattern of the church. Most of the 579 congregations belong to one of the twenty conferences which have membership, or are eligible for membership, in Mennonite General Conference. Member conferences are connected on the chart by a solid line to General Conference. Conferences connected by a broken line have not yet affiliated with Genral Conference, but are considered a part of the denomination, and are counted in the statistics of this Yearbook. Most of them elect a representative to the General Council, which meets several times in each biennium to discuss issues and take interim action. Most of the twenty conferences also participate in the work of the three church-wide boards.

A great deal of the denominational program is carried on by the three boards: Publication Board, Board of Education, and Board of Missions and Charities. These boards are autonomous, i.e., not organizationally responsible to General Conference, as the broken lines indicate. They report their work to General Conference, however, and operate within its standards. Co-ordination is secured through the General Council, on which the boards have membership, and especially through the Council's Committee on Co-ordination.

To keep the chart simple, we have not tried to indicate the organization of the boards, beyond showing the connection of a few subsidiaries. The complete General Conference organization is shown.

Mennonite General Conference

The Mennonite General Conference maintains a headquarters office at Scottdale, Pa. It meets biennially in the odd years. Its General Council met once in 1956, at Laurelville, Pa., Sept. 27, 28. It operates on an annual budget of $38,850 given by the constituency on a basis of $1.08 per member. The next meeting of the General Conference will be at Harrisonburg, Va., Aug. 25-27, 1957.

The organizational structure of Mennonite General Conference may be seen on pp. 16 and 17. In 1956 the Peace Problems Committee co-operated with other of the historic peace churches in conducting a peace conference at North Manchester, Ind. Its secretary, Paul Peachey, contacted many I-W men in a study of the effectiveness of our present program of conscientious objection to war. The committee continues to prepare literature for I-W indoctrination, and is co-operating in the writing of a paper on the peace position by the Church Peace Mission. It conducted a study conference at Laurelville on the political responsibility of nonresistant Christians.

The Commission for Christian Education, which has for its task the promotion of the varied educational program in our congregations, promoted in 1956 the theme, "Knowing and Using the Bible." It conducted at Goshen, Ind., in August the Fifth Sunday School Convention, which drew the largest and most representative crowd of the year. "Co-operation for Effective Service" is the Commission theme for 1957.

Mennonite Youth Fellowship, which functions under the Commission for Christian Education, decided in the annual meeting at Elmira, Ont., in June 1956, to eliminate formal membership mechanics, considering all young people's programs in the Church a part of the MYF program. General meetings will be held biennially, and in connection with General Conference instead of the Mission Board.

Mennonite Mutual Aid is a General Conference service which endeavors to take care of economic needs within the brotherhood of the church. Its services include loans, investments, financial counseling, refugee loans, guidance in colonization, community placement service, and mutual sharing of losses and misfortunes through sickness or death. In 1956 many of these services saw great growth and expansion. Some are now available to other Mennonite groups. A new subsidiary was organized in 1956 called Mennonite Buildings, Inc. Its purpose is to use Mennonite capital to erect buildings for our churches and our institutions.

Mennonite Publication Board

The Mennonite Publication Board, one of the three autonomous church-wide boards of the Mennonite Church, held its annual meeting at Fisher, Ill., Feb. 29 and March 1, 1956. The financial report showed total sales for 1955 of almost 1¼ million dollars, a record figure. But the meeting considered financial problems, since there was, for only the third time in forty-eight years, a slight loss in operations. This was due to increasing costs and the large number of projects which require subsidy.

The first three quarters of 1956 showed an 8 per cent increase in sales. Final figures for the year are not available as this is written, but it appears that sales records will again be broken. Certain economies have been effected, and operations should again show some profit.

The Conservative Mennonite Conference elected a member to the Publication Board last year, which made this Board the first to have elected members from all of our twenty conferences. The Board is planning to observe its fiftieth anniversary in 1958.

The following books were published in 1956: Complete Writings of Menno Simons (a new translation), Growing Up to Love, Youth Program Ideas—Vol. 1, Mennonite Encyclopedia—Vol II, and a new edition of the highly successful Bible survey books, with emendations by C. Norman Kraus, and now divided into five volumes. There were numerous reprints during the year. Writing has begun on the new graded materials for the primary, junior, and intermediate levels.

Bookstores have proved to be both profitable and have served as an excellent method for distributing good literature. The Board decided to establish five new bookstores within ten years. Prospects are good for getting one started in Illinois in 1957.

During the year there were several meetings with mission and relief representatives. There is a growing consciousness of opportunities in the use of literature in foreign lands, and an extension of literature service to these agencies is being planned. A co-operative project, called Agape Press, is now functioning in Switzerland.

The end of the year saw some editorial and administrative changes in the Mennonite Publishing House at Scottdale: Ben Cutrell became Business Manager, setting the Publishing Agent free for more liaison and publicity work; Mervin Miller became

Mennonite Board of Education

The Mennonite Board of Education operates and controls Goshen College, Goshen College Biblical Seminary, Hesston College, and the Mennonite School of Nursing at La Junta. At the annual meeting held at Harrisonburg, Va., Oct. 18-20, the name of Hesston College and Bible School was shortened to Hesston College, with no change of course offerings involved. Because of lack of clinical opportunity at La Junta, it was decided to close the School of Nursing there with the graduation of the present classes, the last in 1958.

A church-chapel was dedicated at Hesston during the year, and a new dormitory is being planned. At Goshen a new dormitory for students of nursing went into use, a new arts building will be completed this year, and a seminary building and church-chapel are being planned.

The plan for our association between branches of the Mennonite Church in seminary education has progressed to the point of officially organizing The Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminaries, The General Conference Mennonites decided to move their seminary to Elkhart, Ind., where a campus has been purchased and buildings are being planned. Our own seminary will remain at Goshen. Other branches which may decide to co-operate will be invited to provide their facilities at Elkhart, and there will be co-operation in library and in research projects through an Institute of Mennonite Studies, responsible to the Associated Seminaries.

A second function of the Board of Education is to furnish a liaisonship for the whole extensive educational program of the Church—both that administered by the Board and that administered by conferences and other groups. This is carried out through the General Educational Council, which has its own Educational Agent, and through subsidiary councils for seminaries, colleges, secondary schools, elementary schools, winter Bible schools, and nursing education. Co-operative studies are carried on, and through offered guidance the total educational experience of the church is made available to all schools.

During the year the Ohio and Eastern Conference formed an organization for the building and operating of a high school in Ohio. This raises to thirteen the number of four-year high schools in the church.

The Study Commission for Higher Education appointed by the Board's General Education Council has almost completed its work. It has made clear the rapidly growing demand for college education in the Church. Increased enrollments in all our colleges this year run a little ahead of the estimates made, and it is certain that enrollments will double by 1970. This makes absolutely necessary great expansion in buildings, faculty, and all facilities. The Board in its annual meeting expressed its purpose to proceed with this expansion. Action was taken also to increase salaries of teachers and administrators.

The Conrad Grebel lectures for 1956 were delivered by G. G. Yoder on The Nurture and Evangelism of of Children. Chester K. Lehman wrote the 1957 lectures on The Holy Spirit and the Holy Life. The Mennonite Research Foundation continued its important services under the direction of G. F. Hershberger.

Personnel changes included the appointment of Ira E. Miller as dean of Eastern Mennonite College and C. J. Ramer as principal of Western Mennonite School.

Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities

The Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities observed its fiftieth anniversary in its annual meeting June 14-17, 1956, at Elmira, Ont. A marvelous expansion has been possible by the Lord's blessing during this half century.

An outstanding development of the year was the full incorporation of our broadcasting into the Board's program. A Broadcasting Committee replaced the Radio Evangelism Committee. Financial budgeting was included in the Board's total budget. A broadcasting headquarters building was purchased at Harrisonburg, Va. The Secretary for Radio Evangelism became Secretary of Broadcasting. New broadcasts were provided: The Way to Life (for foreign English release), Heart to Heart (a women's program), Menonaita Awa (Japanese), and Navaho Bible Hour—these in addition to the rapidly growing Mennonite Hour and Luz y Verdad (Spanish). At the turn of the year over 100 stations were broadcasting our programs in four languages, and plans were being made to broadcast in French and Italian. A second correspondence course was added during the year.

In the organization at Elkhart the Secretary for Publicity and Church Relations became Secretary for Information Services. The Secretary for Personnel was added to the administrative secretaryships.

The Mennonite Church had a beginning in the Gold Coast (Ghana), West Africa, when T. George Thompson, after baptism in London, went back to his homeland to begin work there. There are already twenty-six members there, with encouraging prospects of growth. It is an indigenous work, under the guidance of the Board.

The process of indigenization continues. City missions become independent congregations; an Argentine congregation builds a church without Board financing; P. J. Malagar becomes the only bishop of the Mennonite Church in Central India.

The Board appointed missionaries to open a new mission field in Quebec. New missionries were appointed to Puerto Rico, France, Israel, Brazil, and Argentina. Furloughed missionaries returned to Argentina, Belgium, India, Japan, and Puerto Rico.

The House of Friendship in New York, under the direction of Abner Stoltzfus, is a new venture in Jewish evangelism.

The Sanitarium at La Junta was closed and the building is now being used as a Nursing Home. The Children's Home at West Liberty, Ohio, will begin specializing in caring for teen-age, non-disturbed, mentally retarded children by Sept. 1, 1957. An advance in India was the dedication of a new church at Kanker, the first church in that area to the south of Dhamtari. In Puerto Rico a new hospital was completed, which our Board will operate. A Bible school was opened there, also.

The Relief and Service Committee has been enlarged to seven appointed members. It carried on its extensive program of Voluntary Service—both short-term and long-term—, of I-W Service Co-ordination, of Relief (largely through Mennonite Central Committee), and of Disaster Service organization and promotion. An interesting trend is that now one of three I-W men are in Voluntary Service, including Pax, our foreign I-W projects.

At the annual meeting the treasurer reported total contributions of $1,182,019.90, and total disbursements of $1,195,007.59. Figures of institutional operations added to this make total financial activity under the Board's direction of $2,255,451.69. Adding figures from the district boards to those of the Board show total mission contributions of the Church to be $2,355,069.53, and total disbursements of $2,158,974.15.

The Board is operating this year with a total budget of $1,030,264.80. Some of the larger items are relief and service, $186,000; India missions, $101,628; city missions, $94,514; Argentina missions, $60,564; charitable institutions, $59,000; Puerto Rico missions and hospital, $53,235; Japan missions, $44,700; rural missions, $35,673. Administrative costs last year were 6½ per cent of the disbursements.

Missions Week continues to be an important aid to Board financing. The goal this year was $7.50 per member. Early reports indicate that the goal was not fully reached.

District Boards

Almost all of the conferences have district mission boards which carry on mission and charitable activities. Some of them also have foreign projects. Franconia has a mission in Cuba. Pacific Coast has workers in Mexico. The Conservative Mennonites support workers in Luxembourg and Germany. Virginia has growing churches in Sicily and Jamaica and this year investigated needs in Liberia.

The Eastern Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities, serving the Lancaster Conference, is the chief missionary agent for one fifth of our total membership, and supports missions in Tanganyika, Ethiopia, Somaliland, Luxembourg, and Honduras. This year workers were appointed for Viet-Nam. At its annual meeting in March, 1956, this Board reported 104 foreign missionaries, with plans to raise the number to 125. It sponsors 41 city missions and 46 rural missions. During the year a headquarters building was dedicated at Salunga, Pa. Total receipts reported for the year were a little over a half million.

Fairview Home for the Aged at Preston, Ont., was opened last year by the Ontario Mission Board. The congregations in southeastern Iowa are planning to build this year an old people's home at Kalona.

Mennonite Central Committee

The Mennonite Central Committee serves all branches of Mennonites in a number of service areas, and is our chief agent in foreign relief. In the annual meeting at Chicago, Dec. 27, 28, 1956, it was reported that material aid (gifts-in-kind) increased by $65,636 to $1,430,388, and cash contributions decreased by $37,638 to $939,663. Expenditures for relief were $373,398; for voluntary service, $124,702; for I-W services, including Pax, $114,602; for the Peace Section, $25,346; and for the Mennonite Aid Section, $200,341.

Important developments of the year included the following: turning over the Weiler Children's Home to the French Mennonites; co-operating with European Mennonites in peace conferences; aiding younger churches in Asia through material aid and Christian service; assisting Paraguay with a new road and a leprosy mission; beginning development of a fourth mental health facility in the East Central area.

The closing weeks of the year brought the urgent need of Hungarian refugees, which our resources helped us serve in three camps in Austria and in Heerewegen, Netherlands. The foreign budget for the current year is about $36,000 monthly.

The visit of two men to Russia was the first contact with Mennonites there in over thirty years. There was encouraging news of surviving faith and spiritual revival.

MCC is serving the newly formed Association of Mutual Aid Societies in the formation of a Mennonite risk-sharing venture called Mennonite Indemnity, Inc.

Five MCC workers lost their lives during the year: two Korean nurses, two voluntary service workers, and a Congo Pax man. Four belonged to the General Conference Mennonite Church and one to the Mennonite Brethren Church.

Directions

We are living in a time of accelerated change in the world, and our contacts are such as to directly affect us. There are strains upon our unity when the rate of change varies among us, or when we do not differentiate clearly what belongs to the essence of our faith, and what is dispensable in cultural change.

The ability and the disposition to speak together concerning these matters is helping greatly. Whenever we speak together, there is hope of unity. Study conferences on the theology of Christian experience and on recreation were held during the year; also many less formal conversations.

The church program is expanding, as the foregoing survey shows. Locally a great many congregations are constructing or remodeling church and auxiliary buildings.

Giving is increasing, both in amount and, we believe, in proportion. A significant development is co-operation in planned giving. All our boards and institutions operated on a budget, and long-range planning is on the increase. Many congregations now have a budget for their giving. The General Mission Board and the various district boards have together planned Missions Week, and have shared the funds given. The results have greatly encouraged planned giving. Hesston College has pioneered in helping constituent churches to see what may be expected of them over a period of years.

This Yearbook reveals a small gain over last year in our membership. Numbers are not all-important. If we are clearing our records of inactive members, the record may not be serious. But if the record means that we are not evangelizing, it is serious. Our spiritual vitality may be at fault. Evidently we have a great deal of evangelizing activity. Is it ineffective? Why?

God is still speaking through His Church, of which the Mennonite Church is a part. We look forward with hope to what He will yet be able to say through us.

Tobias Kreider Hershey (1879-1956)

By S. C. Yoder

My first meeting with T. K. Hershey took place on the steamship docks in the city of Buenos Aires, Argentina, on a December morning in 1919. I first saw him from the deck of the S.S. Vauban while waiting for the passengers to disembark. I was at once impressed with the confident and knowing way in which he moved about while getting things cleared through "customs" and on the way to his destination at Pehuajo on the Great Pampas of the southland.

This was the beginning of a long and intimate acquaintanceship which continued during his lifetime. I became Secretary of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities the year following my return from the trip and served in this office during the next twenty-three years, and the following four years while I served as president of that organization. During that period Bro. Hershey served most of the time as the Agent of the Board in Argentina. He also filled other prominent positions in the Mission which kept us in close communication with each other for many years.

His missionary career began at Youngstown, Ohio, with his appointment as superintendent of the mission. Here he served ably and effectively from 1911 to 1914, when he resigned on account of health conditions and moved to Colorado to recuperate. It was during his residence in Colorado that he received the call from the Mission Board to accompany J. W. Shank to Argentina to open a mission work in that field. In 1917 these two families, the Hersheys and Shanks, left their homeland to begin what turned out to be their major life's work in a new country.

His connection with the work in this field covered a period of thirty-one years, from 1917 to 1948, at which time he retired. His years of service were marked with a sincere devotion to the cause, a deep concern for the salvation of the lost, and a seemingly untiring activity to build up a strong and consecrated church that would be able to assist in maintaining itself and in carrying the Gospel to others.

Bro. Hershey was by nature qualified for the task to which he dedicated his life. He was kind and considerate and yet firm and unmovable when principles of right and wrong were involved. His outgoing personality made it easy for him to meet people, and his friendly disposition made him approachable. It seemed as natural for him to speak to folks about their souls as it is for most people to talk about the weather. This opened the way for contacts with many people. None escaped his notice or were excluded from his interest, which included rich and poor, learned and unlearned, the policeman on his beat, officials at their desk, or the neglected, downtrodden, and outcast.

He was not satisfied with confining himself altogether to preaching to those who attended the public services. He promoted the printing of literature and publication of tracts and books in which the cause of the Lord was set forth. He also engaged in tract evangelism. In order to carry on this type of work he was prominent in the outfitting of the Mission truck which made its way from town to town, distributing literature. From an improvised pulpit on its rear platform the Gospel was preached. During the greater part of his years on the field he served as superintendent of the Mission and was vested with the Board's power of attorney and acted as its financial agent.

After his retirement from service with the Argentine Mission he assumed the pastorship of several congregations in Puerto Rico during the furloughs of the regular pastors. He returned to the United States in 1949 and was placed in charge of the evangelistic work among the Latin Americans who were located in and around Lancaster County. During this period he also served as pastor and bishop of the Zion Church near Morgantown.

Brother Hershey was the son of Tobias and Lydia Hershey. He was born March 14, 1879 in Intercourse, Pa., and died at his home in Goshen, Ind., Oct. 31, 1956, at the age of 77 years. Besides his wife, Mae Hertzler Hershey, he leaves his daughter, Beatrice, who with her husband, William Hallman, are serving as missionaries in Argentina; and Lester who is serving as missionary in Puerto Rico.

The words of J. W. Shank in the Gospel Herald, Dec. 18, 1956, constituted a fitting summary of the characteristics that marked the carreer of Bro. Hershey: "Loyalty is the truth as he found it, persistence and enthusiasm in pursuing a chosen policy, executive ability to organize work groups, a winning sympathy that expressed itself in personal evangelism, a good memory that enriched his stories of life's experiences, and a deeply felt personal responsibility to fulfill his obligations."

Ira S. Johns (1879-1956)

By D. A. Yoder

Ira S. Johns was one of the men in the Indiana-Michigan Mennonite Conference who will not soon be forgotten because of his character as a child of God, a family man, an exponent of the truth, a champion of the principles of the Mennonite Church, and as a friend to all, both young and old.

Ira S. Johns was the son of Bishop Daniel J. and Nancy (Yoder) Johns. He was born July 10, 1879, on a farm in Elkhart Township, Elkhart County, Ind. His early days were spent on the farm in summer, and in winter he attended the public school. At the age of 14 he began working for the Herald of Truth Publishing Co., Elkhart, Ind. One of his early tasks was sweeping the floors and disposing of the rubbish. One morning while sweeping the third floor of the building he took the quickest way of emptying the dust pan by tossing the contents out the window. To his dismay one of the proprietors of the establishment, who happened to be John F. Funk, was walking in the yard beneath and received the contents on his head. Ira feared he might lose his job but after making an apology to Brother Funk, he was permitted to continue on the job. While working in Elkhart he was associated with the Kolbs, Chas. McClintic, and others of that day.

After completing the work of the grade school, he took the teachers' examination, received a teachers' license, and taught school one year in Clinton Township. He did not teach school again because the authorities did not receive his letter of acceptance early enough and had already hired another teacher. Instead of teaching he attended Elkhart Institute for some time. After this he became interested in farming. He became acquainted with Elizabeth Rickert of Columbiana, Ohio, while she was attending Elkhart Institute.

Ira and Elizabeth were married on Aug. 17, 1901. They moved on a farm in Clinton Township. After retirement from the farm, he worked in a factory and also did carpentry work. Brother and Sister Johns were the parents of eight children, six daughters and two sons: Vivian, Vera, Vesta, Miriam, Daniel, Mary, Pauline, and Galen. Their two sons and two sons-in-law are ministers of the Gospel serving in the Mennonite Church. Brother Johns was a kind and affectionate father, always showing a deep concern for the spiritual and physical welfare of his household. They reared their family on the farm believing that to be a better place for boys and girls than the city.

Having young people in the home was an incentive for other young people to come to their home, not only the young people of the church but others as well. Many came to Brother Johns for counsel and help in their problems of life. He received the confidences of many and he kept these confidences as a sacred trust. Young as well as old trusted him as a counsellor and I believe he never betrayed a trust placed in him.

Brother Johns was interested in education, especially in the educational program of the Mennonite Church. He was a member of the Mennonite Board of Education from 1930 until 1943. He was deeply concerned that the colleges under the Board champion the distinctive practices of the Mennonite Church, not only in the teaching program but also in practice. He served on the board of the Christian Day School in Clinton Township near his home and also on the planning board of Bethany High School near Goshen. He was a firm believer that the Mennonite Church should operate church-controlled elementary and high schools. For a number of years he was an instructor in Goshen Winter Bible School and also served in the Fairview, Mich., Winter Bible School. His interest in the schools of the church did not cease even when his health declined so that he could not take active part.

Brother Johns was converted at the age of 12 and united with the Amish Mennonite Church near his home where his father was bishop of the congregation. During these early years he learned about many of the problems of the bishop of the church. He related to me many of the trials through which his father passed, especially those when the church divided. He began teaching a Sunday-school class when quite young and taught almost continually until health conditions hindered. In early life he had convictions that he would be called to preach the Gospel, but for a long time he tried to ward off these convictions. The church called him to the office of deacon on July 18, 1909, in which position he served faithfully. He was ordained to the ministry of the Gospel by Bishop D. A. Yoder at Clinton Frame on April 27, 1924, that he might serve in surrounding congregations where there was need of help. Later he became pastor of the home congregation where he served faithfully until several years before his death.

In 1912 he was elected secretary of the Amish Mennonite Conference and served until the conference united with the Indiana-Michigan Mennonite Conference in 1917. In 1923 he was elected secretary of the united conference and served 24 consecutive years. As secretary of conference he was by virtue of his position a member of the Executive Committee of the conference. He also served on other committees such as: Welfare Committee, Conference Examining Committee, Sunday-school Conference Committee and on a number of committees to serve where difficulties existed. He spent some time as evangelist and as Bible conference instructor.

He was a regular attendant at conference, missing only one time before last spring. Both times he missed because of illness. He was a conscientious worker in all positions where he was called to serve. He was never too busy in his secular work that he did not look after his calling as a minister.

Several years ago his health began to fail and toward the last he was confined to his home. After suffering about a year from lukemia, his active life came to a close on June 27, 1956. His was the first death in the immediate family. He is survived by his wife, his 8 children, 36 grandchildren, and 9 great-grandchildren. Many friends gathered at the Clinton Frame Church where funeral services were conducted in charge of Vernon Bontrager, the pastor of the church. Messages were brought by Bishops O. S. Hostetler and D. A. Yoder, who for many years were intimate associates of Brother Johns.

Well may we say: "Servant of God well done." "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." Our present loss is his eternal gain.

Joseph Rhodes Driver (1884-1956)

By Harry A. Brunk

Bishop Joseph Rhodes Driver passed to his reward at the age of seventy-two. His sudden passing was due to a heart attack which he had at his barn on the afternoon of September 12, 1956. His lifeless body was found by a grandson when he returned from school.

Funeral services were held from the Springdale Church with John R. Mumaw and Franklin E. Weaver officiating. He was buried in the cemetery adjacent to the church.

Joseph R. Driver was a member of a prominent and successful Driver family in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. He was the grandson of Daniel Driver who established the old Driver homestead in the Marsh Country about one and one-half miles northeast of Timberville.

Daniel Driver, under the blessing of God gave the church four sons and several daughters. Two sons Daniel, Jr., and John left the State of Virginia for Missouri, where Daniel served the church as minister and John as deacon; two were destined to make their contribution to the church in Virginia. Jacob Driver served the church in the Northern District as deacon. Joseph N. Driver, the father of Joseph R. Driver, the subject of this sketch, was ordained to the ministry in 1869 in the Northern District. In the 1870's he moved to the Middle District where he bought land near Mt. Clinton, Va., and gave land for the building of the Mt. Clinton Mennonite Church, which church he served as minister for a number of years.

Then in 1880 Joseph N. Driver was planning to move west when he received an invitation from Deacon Samuel Weaver to locate in Augusta County. This he did and served the church here until 1888 as a minister, when he was ordained bishop to assist Jacob Hildebrand. He was removed from service by the hand of death in 1890 at the age of forty-five.

One daughter of Daniel Driver, Catherine, married David A. Heatwole and became the mother of L. J. Heatwole who served the church in the Middle District first as minister, then as bishop for many years.

Joseph R. Driver was a representative of this outstanding Mennonite family, the son of Bishop Joseph N. Driver, and the grandson of Daniel Driver.

The Driver homestead in Augusta County is located six miles west of Waynesboro, Va., on the Waynesboro— Stuarts Draft road. Here Joseph R. Driver was born in 1884 and here he was destined to live his entire life. According to the reports of the Driver family, the farm purchased by Joseph N. Driver in 1880 was not a very good one. The first hay crop, the family reports, which was part briars, could have been hauled on one load. Driver was ashamed to say that he had made only one load of hay so he made two loads of it.

This farm under the careful and successful management of the Drivers, particularly Joseph R. Driver, is now one of the best in that community. He was a successful farmer and dairyman.

On Dec. 2, 1908, he married Elizabeth Weaver the daughter of Samuel Weaver of Waynesboro. To this union four sons and four daughters were born. One son Joseph died in infancy. The other boys David H., Fred A., who lives at the old Driver homestead, and Ruel W. Driver, all live on R. 2, Waynesboro. The four daughters are as follows: Mrs. A. B. (Ruth) Burkholder, Mrs. Paul L. (Martha) Wenger, Mrs. Alva (Mary Frances) Showalter, and Mrs. Ornan (Naomi) Huber, all of R. 2, Waynesboro.

Bishop Driver also leaves a brother, Deacon Fred A. Driver, of Waynesboro; a sister, Miss Maggie Driver, R. 2, Waynesboro; and 25 grandchildren.

All the children of Joseph R. and Elizabeth Weaver Driver are faithful members of the Mennonite Church. This is a tribute to the parents who brought them into the world and gave them the training, under the blessing of God that made this possible. As church leaders Brother and Sister Driver gave good account of themselves to God in bringing up their entire family for God and the church. This was as it should be, and a qualification for one who would rule in the church.

The Driver home was given to hospitality, many were the visitors who received a warm welcome. This was particularly noticeable at the time of conference when visitors from other districts were given a generous and hearty welcome in the Driver home.

Sister Driver passed to her reward on Feb. 27, 1932. Her sudden and unexpected passing was a great shock to her husband, her family, and to the entire church in the Southern District of the conference.

Joseph R. Driver, who was ordained to the office of bishop that same year on September 23, 1932, never married again. Driver told the writer just a short time before his passing, that his marriage was so successful and happy that he had some misgivings about trying a second marriage. He went on to say that he had an understanding with his girls that they would provide a home for him. This pledge was faithfully kept by the family, some member of the family living with him until his passing.

He was educated in the common schools of Augusta County. He was ordained to the ministry on November 19, 1911. As a lay preacher he tried to make full proof of his ministry and as far as we know he was successful. He, however, was not satisfied; he wanted additional training which would make it possible for him to serve more acceptably. Soon after Eastern Mennonite School was established at Harrisonburg, Va., he enrolled in the College Bible department. In the year 1919 he likely took parts of two years training which for him meant a full year of school. His course included studies in Church History and even New Testament Greek under the instruction of J. B. Smith, an outstanding Bible scholar.

Driver remained a life long friend of the Eastern Mennonite College. He served on the Board of Trustees for a number of years. The writer remembers with appreciation his visit to the college for a communion service in which he participated as bishop, and spoke words of encouragement to the church and student group.

Joseph R. Driver was an ardent supporter of the church's program, first as minister, then as bishop. He and his wife served a six-month term on the mission field in West Virginia in the summer of 1920. He encouraged the study of missions in his own district and taught mission study classes.

Under his leadership the work of the Southern District was extended. At least two new preaching points where churches have been established were made while he was bishop. They are Valley View near Stuarts Draft, and the East Bethel congregation.

In addition to having bishop oversight of the churches in the Southern District, he was also responsible for the Ebenezer Church at South Boston, Va., for a number of years.

His road as a church leader was not an easy one. There were those near and dear to him who questioned his leadership, and criticized his program at certain points. But there is reason to believe that he was sincere and conscientious in his leadership of the church. He meant it well and was working for the best interests of the church as he understood it. It is reported that he sought at all times to have the united counsel of the ministers in his district work.

In speaking with Brother Driver a short time before his passing about the opposition that he faced, the writer could not detect that he thought uncharitably toward anyone involved in it. This is indeed the mark of a great man. The lapse of time and a careful study of the records involved will enable the historian of the future to impartially appraise his leadership and work.

Bishop Timothy Showalter of the Northern District of the Virginia Conference, wrote the following tribute to Brother Driver at the request of the writer of this article.

"Joseph R. Driver was to me a very highly valued counselor, one which I regard[ed] as being very conscientious, with deep convictions, yet willing to give others their due respect. He was always a pleasant and agreeable companion, and I am sure his life was an inspiration to me."

Joseph C. Fretz (1885-1956)

By Merle Shantz

Joseph C. Fretz, the son of Manasseh and Mary Ann Fretz, was born at Markham, Ont., Sept. 25, 1885, and passed away suddenly as the result of a heart attack while behind the wheel of his car on the evening of August 22, 1956.

He accepted Christ in his youth, uniting with the Wideman Mennonite Church, Markham, Ont.

To Brother Fretz and his wife, Martha Reesor, also of Markham, were born the following four children, who in addition to Sister Fretz, survive him: John, of Salem, Oreg.; Ruth (Mrs. Cyril Gingerich) of Toronto, Ont.; Pauline (Mrs. Clayton Cressman) of Moorefield; and Walter, of Kitchener.

In addition to normal school training he also attended, and was graduated from Goshen College. He taught school in the province of Ontario for about twenty years at the following places: Scotia Junction, Rainham Centre, Rittenhouse School, Vineland, Merriton, and Baden.

As well as being interested in the teaching profession, he developed an early interest in Christian literature and was a pioneer in advocating the establishing of a Mennonite bookstore in his native province. When the Mennonite Publishing House purchased a Christian book business in Kitchener in 1937 he was appointed to the position of manager, a position which he very ably held until 1953. As the head of the Golden Rule Bookstore he took the initiative in building up a wide clientele for the Mennonite Publishing House in Canada. Brother Fretz was at home in the fellowship of many different related Mennonite groups in Canada. For many years he traveled as far west as the prairie provinces and even to the coast to stimulate interest in our church literature. He had many friends in the wider Mennonite fellowship.

Our departed brother by no means confined his talents and interests to the spread of good literature. For many years he was field secretary of the Sunday school conference, a position from which he resigned in 1946. Another field of service which benefited from Brother Fretz's consecrated service was that of the district mission board. He was secretary of the Mennonite Mission Board of Ontario for a number of years until the year 1952.

Few laymen have been as widely used as was Brother Fretz. The conference also appointed him to the office of conference historian, which position he held until the time of his death.

Probably as a result of his contacts with boys and girls, during his years in the teaching profession, he was interested in much that contributed to their welfare. He was an early promoter of the summer Bible school movement in Ontario, and very active in establishing summer camps under the care of the church. Another cause dear to his heart was the plight of orphans and victims of broken homes. He was in touch with the state welfare agencies always looking for opportunities to get unfortunate children under the care and guidance of Christian people.

In December 1953, Brother Fretz was ordained to the office of deacon for the Shantz Mennonite Church near Baden, Ont. In this position he served very faithfully and happily until his death.

A funeral service was held at one o'clock, Aug. 26, at the First Mennonite Church, Kitchener, with Leslie Whitmer and Simon Martin in charge. A. J. Metzler also spoke representing the Mennonite Publishing House. A second service was held at the Wideman Church at four o'clock the same afternoon with Aaron Grove, Elmer Burkholder, and A. J. Metzler participating. He was buried in the Wideman Cemetery. The memory of his life is a reminder of what God can do through a life dedicated to Him.

Oscar Burkholder (1886-1956)

By C. F. Derstine

The Person

Oscar Burkholder, Breslau, Ont. was born Sept. 24, 1886, at Pickering, Ont. He was of German and Irish background. His father was Aaron W. Burkholder and his mother Agnes Bridgit Wood. His religious background was Baptist. After his conversion, he united with the Christian Church. After his reconsecration, at the age of 23, he united with the Mennonite Church. Most of his early life was lived in the Markham and Stouffville district, northeast of Toronto. His trades were farmer and baker; later he was a preacher and teacher with gardening as an avocation.

Brother O. B. (so-called by his personal friends) was educated in the public school and high school of Markham, Ontario. Toronto Bible College left an indelible impression on his life and ministry for good. In this institution he learned to "rightly divide the word of truth," and to present truth in an orderly manner. There was both a simplicity and profundity in his messages, a quality deeply appreciated by laymen, students, and ministers.

Quite early, sports and shows shaded his Christian experience and testimony. However, he early rededicated his life during the stirring revival of D. D. Miller, Middlebury, Ind., at Breslau, Ont., and united with the Cedar Grove Mennonite Church, near Markham, Ont. Later he became the pastor of the Breslau, Ont., Mennonite Church. His life and testimony have been widely stamped upon the new denomination (Mennonite) he espoused.

Brother O. B. was an interesting conversationalist. He was witty, but his wit was clean and wholesome. The merry twinkle in his eyes will always be missed. He was, as Rev. George F. Barthel, of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, called him, a "Christian gentleman."

The Pastor

He was called to be pastor of the Cressman Mennonite Church, Breslau, Ont., Jan. 5, 1913. His was a difficult field, and the village was small; it had two churches, and with the city of Kitchener near by, many united with different denominations. But in spite of the limited field, he was used of the Lord to establish a good sized congregation, and a useful one. Quite a number of preachers and missionaries have been nurtured by this church. He served a life-time pastorate forty-one years, until June 13, 1954. He served as bishop from 1949 to 1956. He loved his church, and they loved him. His first wife, Laura Mae Shantz, and second wife, Mary Reesor, faithfully assisted him.

The Evangelist

He spoke of himself as a pastor, who like Timothy, endeavored to heed the Apostle Paul's admonition, "Do the work of an evangelist." This he did, with considerable interest, fervor, and success. His first series of meetings was conducted in his boyhood community, Altoona, Ont., 1917; the last in Greencastle, Pa., 1952. All in all, 180 meetings. Over 1,000 souls accepted Christ, the largest number being 24 at the Mannheim, Ont., Church. His was a Biblical ministry, preaching the Gospel, and seeking to keep alive neglected truth.

The Bible Teacher

In this sphere Brother O. B. excelled. He was a clear, pointed, faithful, and able expositor of the Word. Scores of preachers, hundreds of teachers, and thousands of laymen are indebted to him, both in Canada and the United States.

He began teaching Bible school in 1920 and taught yearly until 1956. The chief places where he taught were Ontario Mennonite Bible School; Ontario Mennonite Bible Institute, Kitchener, Ont.; and Turner, Mich. He delivered 4,368 Bible lessons; and 8,131 sermons. He conducted 89 Bible conferences from north to south and east to west. His first one was at Archbold, Ohio, 1924 and last, Doylestown, Pa., 1953.

Other Christian Activities

Brother Burkholder served widely and well in the following capacities: Bible School Principal, 1948-1954; Secretary of Ontario Mennonite Sunday School Conference, 26 years; President of Ontario Mennonite Mission Board, 14 years; Publishing Committee, 27 years; General Conference Executive Committee, 22 years; Moderator General Conference, 1949-1951; General Problems Committee, 12 years; Publication Board Member, 6 years; Board of Education, 10 years; General Conference Historical Committee, 6 years; General Mission Board member, 6 years; Rockway Mennonite High School Board Member, 4 years; Chairman Nonresistance and Relief Board of Ontario for 11 years; President Breslau Bible Society, 32 years.

As a writer, Brother O. B. used "no secondary pen." He was author of three books: Stories for Youth, I and II; The Predicted Departure from the Faith; and also many articles for the Gospel Herald, Christian Monitor, Christian Ministry, and the Sword and Trumpet. He was General Conference delegate to the World Conference of Mennonites, Basel, Switzerland, 1952. From this point he traveled to the Holy Land. He conducted the first Mennonite Communion Service in London, Finsbury Mission, 1952, where John Coffmans were the workers.

Bishop

The New Testament recognizes a teaching and a ruling ministry. The Apostle Paul urges that men laboring in this dual ministry were worthy of double honor. Time mellowed Brother Burkholder as the last years of his life crowned him as an effective overseer of the flock.

His last concern as an "overseer" was expressed to the writer, and others. "There is a strange silence in the ministry, concerning our Lord's return, and associated truth. With a world crisis before us, the Protestant ministry confused and frustrated, what about the flock?" He urged a ministry, more according to the Apostle John, who gave the Apocalypse to the church for the crisis of the early church. This concern is expressed for the Prophet whose voice is now silent and whose mantle falls on us to carry on.

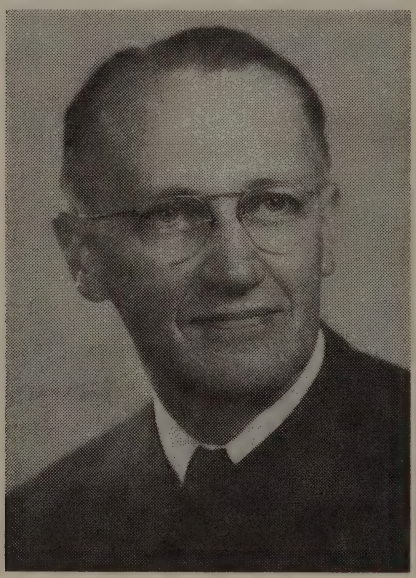
William Gehman Detweiler (1903-1956)

By Bill Detweiler

William Gehman Detweiler was born May 3, 1903, in Blooming Glen, Pa. He and a sister (Mrs. Laidy Fulmer of Perkasie, Pa.) were the only children of Wilson and Minerva Detweiler.

When he was fourteen years old, he spoke of a desire to go to a foreign field as a missionary, and this desire did not leave him as he attended public schools and grew into young manhood.

In the fall of 1921, he went to Eastern Mennonite Academy at Harrisonburg, Va., to complete his high school training, graduating from this school in the spring of 1922. During the next several years, he taught public school, at the same time attending summer school at Millersville State Teachers' College and Elizabethtown College, and taking Saturday and night courses from the University of Pennsylvania and Temple University, both in Philadelphia.



During this busy time of teaching school and attending university, he found time to fall in love with Anna Tyson Landes, of Skippack, Pa. Mother says that early in their courtship, Dad told her he had a conviction to go as a missionary to a foreign land. On Aug. 13, 1927, Mother became Mrs. Wm. G. Detweiler, and, as anyone who knew them can testify, their life together was one of ususual devotion and happiness.

In June, 1928, Dad graduated with honors from Temple University, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education. At about this same time, he and Mother were appointed to the Norristown, Pa., Mennonite Mission. While serving as superintendent of this mission, Dad continued to teach at Fitzsimmon's Junior High School in Philadelphia.

Mother and Dad continued at the Norristown Mission until 1931, when they received a call to go to the Mennonite Mission in Canton, Ohio. These times of mission work, in both Norristown and Canton, were times of waiting for the Mission Board to acquire the needed funds to send them to India. But the time was one of depression, and the funds for supporting missionaries were meager.

Dad was ordained a minister in the Mennonite Church in June, 1933. Just when it seemed that the Mission Board would be able to send Mother and Dad to India, Mother's health made it inadvisable for them to go to the foreign field. The Lord, it seemed had other plans for them.

While at Canton, Dad had a growing conviction that the milling masses of humanity were not being reached with the Gospel. From his bedroom window, at night time he could easily see the lights of the city of Canton. Mother says that he used to paraphrase a song which was popular in his youth, by saying, "There's a lost soul for every light in Canton."

Mother had also told us how she would sometimes awaken during the night and find Dad kneeling by the side of the bed, praying for the lost, unreached souls of Canton. Because of this great concern for the souls of men, he was always seeking for more effective methods of reaching more people. He became impressed with the idea that by means of radio many thousands could be told the Gospel truths who would never hear them in any other way. He and Mother prayed about beginning a broadcast for more than a year, and finally came to believe that it was the will of the Lord for them to begin a broadcast over a local station.

The Calvary Hour was begun in November, 1936. It was first known as the Mennonite Hour, but pressure came from some areas of the Mennonite Church to have the name of the broadcast changed, since some church leaders of a more conservative disposition than Dad sharply criticized broadcasting as being "worldly." This attitude has been broken down through the years, so that the Mennonite Church now has its own official broadcast known as The Mennonite Hour.

In 1938, Dad was called to Wayne County, Ohio, to become the associate pastor of the Oak Grove Mennonite Church, a large rural church near Orrville, Ohio. He remained at the Oak Grove Church until 1946. In 1947, he became the pastor of the Pleasant Hill Mennonite Church, in the same community, and continued in this capacity until 1952, when he resigned from his full pastoral responsibilities in order to give his full time to the work of The Calvary Hour, a work which involved much traveling for speaking engagements in all parts of the country. He continued, however, to retain his church membership at the Pleasant Hill Mennonite Church until his death, frequently preaching there when he had an open Sunday at home.

The Calvary Hour did not enjoy a fast growth. From one station it eventually grew to five stations, then to ten. At the time of Dad's death, the broadcast was being heard over more than twenty stations in both the United States and foreign countries.

On Friday morning, Jan. 13, 1956, as Dad was dressing in preparation for the work of another day, he very suddenly and unexpectedly left to be with the Lord, apparently the victim of an acute coronary occlusion.

A funeral service was held at the Orrville Mennonite Church on Sunday, Jan. 15, with O. N. Johns preaching the sermon. His body was then taken to Pennsylvania, where, on Jan. 17 another funeral service was held at the Blooming Glen Mennonite Church, Blooming Glen, Pa., the church of his youth. At this service, George R. Brunk of Denbigh, Va., preached the funeral sermon. His body was buried in the Blooming Glen Church Cemetery, less than half a mile from the place of his birth.

Brother Detweiler is survived by his wife, Anna Landes Detweiler, and his twin sons, Bill and Bob. Bill and Bob are assistant pastors in local Mennonite churches, and they, together with their mother, are continuing the work of The Calvary Hour.

* The above tabulation represents contributions received by the Treasurer of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities including contributions received directly by the city missions and charitable institutions under the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities. Charitable contributions include only contributions that were received by the Treasurer and not payments made by patrons of the charitable institutions. Other contributions not included in this tabulation are annuities and district board contributions not forwarded to the Treasurer at Elkhart. Most of the contributions under General Fund of missions have been used for home work. Figures are for the fiscal year ending April 1.

Growing Up to Love

by H. Clair Amstutz, M.D.

GROWING UP TO LOVE speaks redemptively to our modern secular world. It is an answer to modern immorality and Puritan asceticism. This book does not minimize nor exaggerate the sexual relationships, but explains the necessity for their proper development. The author describes sex as "the natural yearning for wholeness . . . expressing itself normally in tenderness, affection, togetherness and self-giving."

Here is a book which discusses attitudes toward sex rather than facts about sex. As one reviewer put it, "This is one of our best statements of the Biblical attitude toward sex and the meaning of human love." $2.50

Meditations for the New Mother

by Helen Good Brenneman

A devotional meditation and prayer for each of the first thirty days is combined with a choice Scripture passage and a carefully chosen poem or quotation. An appropriate gift for the pastor to present to the new mother when making a pastoral call. $1.25

Christian Nurture of Children

by Alta Mae Erb

CHRISTIAN NURTURE OF CHILDREN contains clear practical wisdom on mistakes that so frequently have a devastating effect on the child's religious life and personality. It is a handy manual for the busy parent who is interested in nurturing his child for Christ and the church. $2.00

The Alpha and the Omega

By Paul Erb

Here is a clear bold testimony to the Lord's return. This book is based upon God's purpose for human history which is to produce "the image of God in man to the glory of God."

The Christian's hope is based on what has already transpired—the work of Christ, which will be completed at the coming again of Christ. Reading this book will enlarge the reader's vision of the glorified Christ. $2.50

The Challenge of Christian Stewardship

By Milo Kauffman

Here is a book which deals with the obligations of every child of God. "Stewardship had its origin in the very heart and mind of God, and was for the happiness, blessing and good of man," is the basis on which this book is written. This is the kind of book that makes you want to be a better steward and a better Christian. $2.50
